

SEACOAST ARTIST GUILD
NEWSLETTER - SEPTEMBER 2010

OCTOBER GENERAL MEETING: October 10, 2010, Sunday, 2:00 pm, Inlet Square Mall. Park in the rear of the mall and enter through the food court entrance, meeting room -- first door on the left.

Speaker for the October meeting will be Jan Haga, owner of The Howard Gallery which opened in 1986 and is currently the oldest frame shop/gallery in Myrtle Beach. With examples, Jan will show us the best ways to exhibit artwork with the latest trends in framing, by keeping the standards for shows, and she will include helpful hints for the do-it-yourselfers. Don't miss this great opportunity for info, friendship and camaraderie with fellow artists.

FALL SHOW: The Fall Show is running from the 15th - the 23rd, at the Inlet Square Mall, Center Court, with the reception being held from 6 - 8 pm on Friday, the 15th.

Reminder: September 30th is the last day for mailing entries.

Please mail prospectus to: Seacoast Artist Guild, PO Box 2730, Murrells Inlet, SC 29576

We have been very fortunate with supporters donating both cash and gift certificates to be used for our show. We will be awarding 3 Honorable Mentions in each category (Professional and Non-Professional).

The rest of the donations will be given away as door prizes to Seacoast members who participate in the show, as well as those who may not be entering the show, but, have helped in any way (sitters, hanging crew, etc. The drawing for the door prizes will be held at 5:30 pm, a half hour before the start of the reception on Friday, October 15th. You need not be present to win.

Prospectus can be obtained on-line, www.seacoastartistguild.com, or at Artworks, or by calling Rose Perry, Coordinator, at 235-3497.

Finger foods (dry snacks) are needed for the reception. i.e., crackers, chips, cookies (No dips please) Please call Anne Dickson @ 651-9867.

Judging for the Fall Show will be Rose Metz from Sumter, SC. Rose's professional education includes Cleveland Institute of Art, the Fort Worth Museum of Western Art, and the University of South Carolina. She has studied abroad at Peterboro, England and Fortman Studios in Florence, Italy. She has shown versatility in her choice of subject matter by painting abstracts, landscapes, florals, still life, figure study and collage. Rose has exhibited with the Oklahoma Watercolor Society, the Collage Society in Los Angeles, the Salmagundy Club in NYC, and the Florence SC Museum. She has had one woman shows held in Bishopville, Camden, Lancaster, USC-Sumter, the Burroughs-Chapin Museum in Myrtle Beach and Jackson Gallery, Aiken, SC. We are pleased and proud to have Rose Metz as a part of our Fall Show.

PASTEL WORKSHOP: We still have openings for the Pastel Workshop with Bob Johnston to be held on Saturday, October 2nd, from 9 - 3 pm, at the Salters Cove Community Building in Garden City. Call Cindy Blanchard 655-1799 or 215-5454.

LUNCHEON: Our annual luncheon was held September 15th at Pasteria 811. Sixty-four people attended and enjoyed scrumptious food and the demonstration presented by our member Bernie Slice. Sue Buckley was the lucky winner of Bernie's artwork. Beside showing his talents in the art world, Bernie made his new book "The Adventures of Willy Waterdrop" available to our members. President Ron Blanchard gave a big thank you to Bernie, and also congratulations to the luncheon committee; Mary Dezzutti, Marcelle Cushman, Edna Fenske, and Dottie Covington. Chairperson Mary Dezzutti expressed, "A special thank you to Chef Michael and to his very patient little helper, and to David Demer for his surprise dessert."

SOCASLEE LIBRARY: The Socaslee Library is presently in phase II. New artists have been hanging pieces on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and will display for the next three months. Stop in at the library and check out the new work.

GALLERY @ APPLEWORK: In the 16 months that the Gallery has been in existence, 350 pieces were sold, totaling $26,629. There are 21 on the waiting list and the art will be changed out again in November. The commission that is received for the Guild has been used for advertising (bill board) and the upkeep of the Gallery.

WORKSHOP WITH JOLYN KUHN: A workshop with Jolyn Kuhn will be held on Saturday, November 20th at Salters Cove Community Building in Garden City. The workshop will be on the process "Grisaille". More info to follow.

BOOK SALE: Mary Dezzutti and committee collected $200 from the recent book sale that took place after the September general meeting. The books were donated to Seacoast by the family of deceased member Sylvia Rhodes. The remaining books were donated for educational purposes.

RECIPIENT: Virginia Lee Huntsinger is the recipient of the $500 scholarship Seacoast donated through the Cultural Council.
